The fort on Belcher's Point will also be a very commanding one, and is, we believe, to be heavily armed so that a vessel attempting to enter through the Green Island channel would encounter a day's Gazette proclaiming Nagasaki an infected fierce converging fire. Altogether there seems every prospect, at last, of this important port and naval station being soon placed in a position to defy attack from any quarter. The work has been long delayed, and there is therefore the more reason for congratulation that it is now being prosecuted in good Buffs. earnest.

THE statement made by the Shanghai hama and this port. Mercury that the Japanese flag has been hoisted on the Meiaco-shima group of islands is worthy of note, having regard to that open sore, the Loochoo Question, between Japan and China. We believe the report to be well founded, but when the event occurred we have not heard. The Meiaco-shima group has always been tributary to the Loochoos. and when those islands were formally incorporated into the Japanese Empire as the Okinawa ken, it was only reasonable to suppose that the Japanese Government would, sooner or later, take steps to bring the little southern dependency of Loochoo under their administration. Possibly recent events in these waters, the seizure of Port Hamilton by England, the alleged in districts the Mandarins came out to meet the tention of Russia to acquire Quelpart the reported Protectorate Treaty by that Power with Kores, and the rapid appropriation by Germany of islands possesing no settled government and under the protection of no civilised flag, may have precipitated the action of Japan. However that may be, there seems to be no question that her right to the group is indisputable if ber claim to the sovereignty of the Luochous is admitted. And that question, so long and cittorly disputed by the Chinese Govern- showed his public spirit by supplying the ment, was, if we mistake not, finally set at Australian Contingent to the Soudan gratuitously the claims of Spain to the Caroline Islands and rest when the protocol of the 18th April last, for active benevolence. While, however, it is pretty certain that live banks, are published in the Gazette:the Japanese, Government have formally taken possession of the Meiaco-shima Islands, we do not for a moment credit the statement of our Shanghai contemporary that they have also planted their flag on " several Eanking Corporation other islands on the east coast of Formesa, belonging-to-China." There-are-no-other islands to annex in that direction beyond few islets, and it is not at all likely that the Japanese Government, would gratuitously arouse the anger of Peking for the sake of few trumpery rocks. If we remember rightly, General Grant, in hisattempt to arbitrate on the Leochee difficulty, awarded the Meinceshima Islands to China and the Loochoos to Japan, but this proposal was not accepted, and we presume when the Peking Government relinquished the Loochoo dispute they likewise gave up-all-claim-to-the Locchocan-dependency. - Most probably the Japanese Government gave intimation of their intention to raise their flag on these islands to Peking, inst. from Port Hamilton. for they would not be likely to deliberately do anything to disturb the good relations which now subsist between them and the Chinese Government. To do so would Asiatic empires have now composed all their 121 differences, and seem in a fair way to become excellent friends. ELIZABETH ZANE.

This dauntless pioneer maiden's name Is inscribed in gold on the soroll of Famo: . Slie was the lassic who knew no fear When the tomahawk gleamed on the far frontier. If deeds of daring should win renown; Let us honour this damiel of Wheeling town, Who braved the savage with deep disdain-Bright-eyed, buxon Elizabeth Zane. "T was more than a hundred years ago, They were close beact by the dusky foo; They had spent of powder their scanty store, And who the gauntlet should run for more? She sprang to the portal and shouted, " I; "T is better a girl than a man should die! My loss would be but the garrison's gain. Unbar the gate!" said Elizabeth Zane.

The powder was sixty yards away. Around her the formen in ambush lay; As she darted from shelter they gazed with awe, Then wildly shouted, "A squaw!" "a squaw!" She neither swerved to the left or right, Swift as an antelope's was her flight, "Quick! Open the door!" she cried, amnin, "For a hope forlorn! "T is Elizabeth Zane!" No time had she to waver or wait, Back she must go ere it be too late; She anatched from the table its cloth in haste And knotted it deltly about her waist, Then filled it with powder -never, I ween, Had powder to levely a magnaine; Then, scorning the bullets, a deadly rain, Like a startled fawn, fied Elizaboth Zane, She gained the fort with her precious freight Strong hands fastened the oaken gate; Brave men's eyes were suffused with tears That had there been strungers for many years. From flint-look rifles again there sped 'Gainst the skulking redskins a storm of lead, And the war whoop sounded that day in vain, Thanks to the deed of Elizabeth Zane. Talk not to me of Paul Revere. When a witness contradicted himself he was assailed from the beach with such choice abuse as, "thou art a strange prevarieating, shuffling, snivelling rascal, or, "Jesus, God! was there ever such a fellow as thou!" or, "thou vile wretch, thou art;" or, "thou lying Presbyterian knave." No wonder then that, as an excuse for his contradictions, the bewildered witness trombling before those embruted eyes and that streperous voice murmured, "I am know what to say."

Deplorable as was this judicial licence, and degrading alike to the bench and the man, Jeffries was at his very worst when he proceeded to read his victim, witness, or prisoner a moral lecture on the heinousness of bearing false testimony or rising in revolt against the sovereign. On these occasions -and they were very frequent—his piety is more monstrous than his abuse. During the trial of Alice Lisle he was much given to discourses of this nature-discourses which, coming from such a polluted source, were blasphemous in the extreme. Over and over again we hear him preaching of the enormity of sin, groaning over the iniquity of the times in which his lot was cast, discoursing upon the purity and beliness of God, and like the devil, freely quoting Scripture.
